

Miss Me But Let Me Go

*When I come to the end of the road, and the sun has set for me, I want no rites in gloom-filled rooms, Why cry for a soul set free? Miss me a little--but not too long and not with your head bowed low; remember the love that we once shared, miss me--but let me go. This is a journey that we all must take, and each must go alone. It's all a part of the Master's plan, a step on the road to home.
When you are lonely and sick at heart, go to the friends we know, and busy your sorrows in doing good deeds. Miss me - but let me go.*

She graduated at Colonel White High School, Class of 1972 and then continued her education at Sinclair Community College earning an Associate's Degree and receiving numerous certificates in Liberal Arts, Health and Government. She worked at the Dayton Veteran's Administration in Nursing and Radiologist Departments for 35 years. Deborah was full of life and always smiling. Her smile was contagious and a robust spirit that left an impact on everyone who had the pleasure of knowing her. She was a loving and devoted mother, grandmother, great grandmother, daughter, sister and friend. She was helpful, a caregiver, loved people and never met a stranger. She was an avid writer of short stories and numerous poems. She enjoyed being around family, friends and loved playing the lottery, traveling and dancing but her passion was being the uber driver for the grandchildren. During her younger years she enjoyed skating & bowling.

Monday, August 10, 2020 Deborah Denise Ellis-Lowe transitioned from this life to be in the presence of the Lord. She was also preceded in death by her husband, Princeton Lowe. ## II Timothy 4: 7-8

I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith; Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day; and not to me only, but unto all them also that love His appearing.
