Charles White, Sr., age 73, was born June 10, 1947 in Dayton, Ohio to the late Frank Jones, Jr. and Verna White-Crafter. He was educated in the Dayton Public School system and graduated from Roosevelt High School, Class of 1964. Immediately after graduation, Charles was employed at Delphi/Inland a Division of GM where he worked on the assembly line and retired after 35 years of service. Charles accepted Christ as Lord and Savior and was baptized during 2002 at Freedom Faith MB Church, where he was a faithful member until his health began to decline. He was a loving, giving and caring husband, father, grandfather, brother and friend. He was quiet, reserved, loved to laugh and just sit back and observe. He enjoyed spending time with family, eating good food, listening to music and watching classic western movies on television.

Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road, and the sun has set for me, I want no rites in gloom-filled rooms, Why cry for a soul set free? Miss me a little--but not too long and not with your head bowed low; remember the love that we once shared, miss me--but let me go. This is a journey that we all must take, and each must go alone. It's all a part of the Master's plan, a step on the road to home. When you are lonely and sick at heart, go to the friends we know, and busy your sorrows in doing good deeds. Miss me - but let me go.

- Betty Miller

Psalm 23 - A Psalm of David

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He makes me to lie down in green pastures; He leads me beside the still waters. He restores my soul; He leads me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil for You are with me; Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me. You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies. You anoint my head with oil; my cup runs over. Surely, goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
