You are always loved & never forgotten

Reflection of the Life of Tyrone Jones Sr.

Tyrone Jones Sr. was born on May 12, 1962 in Jersey City, New Jersey to Betty Jones and Thurman J. Powell Sr. He was the youngest of two to his mother, and later to his father his other four siblings.

In January 1984, he made the decision to serve his country and enlisted in the United States Air Force. He served as a Histology Technician and due to his interest in computers he later cross-trained to Information Systems and Program Management earning Associates Degrees in both fields and several certifications. He was honorably discharged from the military in March 1995. He held and excelled at numerous jobs; Bartender, IT Specialist, Entrepreneur and later found his niche as a Master Barber.

Tyrone was a PASSIONATE sports fan and could always be seen yelling at the TV while watching his New York Giants. No matter their record, you couldn't tell him a thing about his team!

Tyrone was always the sharpest dresser in the room. You were never going to catch him in a clean, new suit, but don't forget about his matching ascot and tie! From his hat, down to his shoes, he was always dy.

Above all, the thing he loved most was family! Tyrone was well known for constantly talking about and showing off his babies. He was an extremely loving and proud father.

Tyrone departed this life on November 17, 2020 at Grandview Hospital. He was preceded in death by: mother Betty Jones, father Thurman Powell Sr., sister Jerilyn "Sugar" Jones, brother Thurman Powell Jr. and sister Cynthia McMurrian. He leaves to embrace his memory, children; Tyrone II, Tyasha L., and Tyana R. Jones; ex-wife Rochelle Jones; fiancé Shondale Atkinson, sisters Faricita Best and Shervette Parker; grandsons Dorsey Jr. and Dallas, nephew Andre Jones, special cousins: Frank Anderson, Fred Walton, James Jones (D), Linda Calhoun, Kenny Parham (D), Debora Jackson, Donald Byrd, Brenda Noel, Alfrieda Parham, Grant Walton, Emily Walton Robinson, Betina Byrd, along with a host of nieces, nephews, and other family and friends.

When Tomorrow Starts Without Me

When tomorrow starts without me, please try to understand,

*That an angel came and called my name, and
took me by the hand;*

The angel said my place was ready,

In Heaven far above,

*And that I'd have to leave behind all those
I dearly love.*

*But when I walked through Heaven's Gates,
I felt so much at home,*

*God looked down, smiled at me, and told me
"Welcome Home."*

So when tomorrow starts without me,

Don't think we're far apart,

For every time you think of me, I'm right there in your heart.
