

Honorary Pallbearers

Wesley McDaniel III    Mario Bell    Michael Kates

Wesley "Lil Wink" McDaniel    Gabriel Kates

William McDaniel

Honorary Flower Bearers

Her Grandchildren and Nieces

Acknowledgments

We would like to take this time to extend our thanks for every phone call, text message, prayer, and word of encouragement that you have extended to our family at our time of need. We ask that you continue your prayers for the days in front of us as we grieve the passing of our loved one.

-The McDaniel Family

To My Family

I know that my leaving has brought you tears but know that I am here, with mother and father who I missed so much. They were waiting on me when I arrived and they have not left my side. I know you wanted me to stay but Our Father needed me. I will watch over you from time to time and peek in to share the bonds we always have had. So dry your eyes, I'm doing just fine and I know that in time I will see you again. I love you and when you need me just call and I will be right there.

-Love Cent

Homegoing Celebration

Cindi M. McDaniel

Sunrise

March 26, 1969

Sunset

December 8, 2020

Order of Service

Prelude ..... Soft Music
Processional ..... Soft Music
Selection ..... Elder Art London
Scripture Testament ..... Knisha Hurt
Prayer of Comfort ..... Elder Maurice Carter
Selection ..... Elder Art London
Obituary ..... Willia McDaniel

Words of Expression/Reflections

Poem ..... Johnna Dorsey
Family/Friends ..... Please limit to only 2 mins
Eulogy/Words of Comfort ..... Pastor Rosa Carter
Recessional ..... Soft Music

2 Timothy 4:7-8

I have fought the good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith:

Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.

Our Cindi

Cindi Michelle McDaniel was born March 26, 1969 and departed this life December 8, 2020. Cindi is preceded in death by her father Wesley McDaniel II, her mother Linda McDaniel and two nephews, Allen Bell and Marquess Dillard Jr.

She leaves to cherish her beautiful memory two daughters, Randi and Rryan McDaniel, three grandchildren, Keiani and Keith Gentry-Sanders and Kamyryn McDaniel, and anxiously awaiting the arrival of her granddaughter Haven McDaniel, two sisters Lisa and Tomeca McDaniel, two brothers, Wesley III and Carl McDaniel. Devoted nieces and nephews, Tashe'Anna, Nicole, Mario, Wesley, Michael, Gabriel, William, Jayla, Jay, Schy'ion, Zh'Kiar, Zachary, Z'Maya, ZiAsia, and Anthony Jr., Beloved Aunts, Mackie, Patricia, Gloria, and Barbara, two Uncles Lee and Nathaniel, cousins, Linda, Tryyun, Ronnike, Johnny, Deborah, Jearlene, Willia, Diane, and among a host of cousins too numerous to name.

Cindi was the second child of her parents four children placing her in the position of the middle child. Ordinarily the middle child is the one to be ignored or forgotten but Cindi made up in her mind early on that she would not be quietly ignored. She made sure to always speak up especially when she thought something was wrong or unjust. Sometimes her words were sweet and sometimes her words might sting but they were always from a sincere heart.

Our mother always made sure we had a relationship with God. As kids we attended Daniel Temple under Bishop Ruby S. Daniel. We went every time the doors opened for service and they were opened a lot. When we got older we went through a period of not attending church but thankfully we were drawn back in. Cindi visited a church near our home Church of Christ's Disciples under Pastor B. Turner and loved it. She invited me (Lisa) to join and we joined and later our mother joined. After many years there we visited our dad's church, House of refuge under Pastor Rosa Carter. We eventually made a change and that became our church home.

Cindi attended and graduated from John H. Patterson Co-Op High School under cosmetology vocation. She was also very proud that her daughters also graduated under David Ponitz School but it was still Patterson to us. She went to University of Cincinnati and studied Allied Health. After three years, we both moved off campus together and got jobs and lived in Cincinnati 10 years before moving back home to Dayton. Cindi's favorite job was at the IRS as a data transcriber and tax examiner. She started there the year she had her first daughter Randi. She worked at IRS about 23 years. After IRS she worked at Miami Valley Nutrition Services call line. Then several years at Alternate Solutions as a data entry specialist. Her last job for MetLife a little over a month but she made fast friends with her coworkers. Cindi formed lasting bonds at all of her jobs. Really anywhere she spends time or conversation with someone she leaves a lasting positive impression. Now young Cindi might have caught a stranger's eye with a hard, "Can I help you?" and been prepared to do verbal or physical battle if the need arose, but I'm proud to say that was left in the past.

Cindi's daughters and her 3 grandchildren were her heart and joy and she was eagerly awaiting for the arrival of number 4. They can all attest to Mommy, Gram-ma, and Mung-ga loved them and help them in any way that she could. They were close knit.

Cindi touched so many people in her life that her absence will be deeply felt. She had reconnected with friends from childhood, grade school, high school, college years, early jobs, and many many new friends. She had love in her to give through words and actions which is God plans for us all. To always love one another as God love us.

Cindi is about love and her love is about family

A Standing Ovation for Cindi

She has a contagious smile that captures the hearts of many young and old.

She has an undeniable faith that she shared with no hesitation with many generations from day to day

She plays, she laughs, she nurtures, she cares and even more she is always there.

She is a mother, a grandmother, a sister, an aunt, and more

But most of all she is uniquely made by God's Grace.

When God created her, He used His Divine Love and He knew just where to place her.

He called out to Linda and Wesley and informed them of this perfect creation that was just for them and called her name Cindi.

No one expected the impact that this Queen would bring to the world.

She excelled at every title that was given to her

What an incredible mother. What an incredible grandmother. What an incredible sister. Oh, what an incredible friend and woman of God.

You did it, Cindi. You left your mark. You left an undeniable fullness of faith with all of us.

I know Mother and Father welcomed you home and I know that you are in the best care and the best place ever. Just know we already miss you. Just know that we will always carry you everywhere we go. Thank you for being everything that we needed and everything that we wanted.

Life has a way of taking you out of your comfortable self at times. Well, we have been out of our comfort zone for quite a while now and as soon as we started to get back comfortable here this comes. Life does change like the seasons. However, not one memory we shared could ever change. Well stand up Queen, adjust your crown, cause this is your time.

We love you forever Cindi. We love you Queen and we salute you. This is your standing ovation from all of us.

-The Family

And Her Master replied, "Job well done, thou good and faithful servant."

