It has been said that he, in the totality of his life, has owned, rescued or fostered every small animal native to Dayton. LaMonte possessed MAD mechanical skills and he shared his skills with all, especially the elderly. He could repair and or replace your noisy or squeaky THIS, your dripping or leaky THAT and your shaking, rattling or broken THING. Musically inclined he played the guitar.

After 22 years of marriage Terri was at LaMonte's bedside as the lord welcomed him into heaven.
