

Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road, and the sun has set for me, I want no rites in gloom-filled rooms, Why cry for a soul set free? Miss me a little but not too long and not with your head bowed low; remember the love that we once shared, miss me-- but let me go. This is a journey that we all must take, and each must go alone. It's all a part of the Master's plan, a step on the road to home. When you are lonely and sick at heart, go to the friends we know, and busy your sorrows in doing good deeds. Miss me - but let me go.

Of Diana

Acknowledgements

The family of Diana Hall acknowledges with sincere appreciation every act of kindness shown in our hour of bereavement. Special thanks to George Thompson, for the love and support he's given Diana through the past couple of years and her last days. Deepest thanks to Diana's granddaughter, Erica for the time, consideration, and encouragement throughout her breast cancer fight. The family would also like to send a special thanks to Diana's nephew, James Jr., for the gratitude he's shown in the past couple of months, which meant a lot to her. Thank you to all our family and friends who helped in anyway and for your presence here with us today. May God continue to bless and keep you. Please keep our family in your prayers.

Psalm 23 - A Psalm of David (nkip)

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He makes me to lie down in green pastures; He leads me beside the still waters. He restores my soul; He leads me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil for You are with me; Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me. You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies. You anoint my head with oil; my cup runs over. Surely, goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever
