A friendly smile, a casual touch, these are the things that mean so much. To know you are with us in our time of sorrow, sharing our prayer, today and tomorrow. God gives us comfort in the form of good friends, may His peace be with you, His love never ends. Special thanks to Christina and Lisa Furlow, Yavonne Danley (Lew), Antwone Cook, Rosetta and Debra Ballinger, Tasha Valentines, Tina Carroll, Mersadie Thomas, the City of Dayton First Responders and the Nurses and Doctors at Children's Hospital for their compassion and efforts and to all of our family and friends who helped in anyway. May God continue to bless and keep you is our prayer. Please remember to keep our family in your thoughts and prayers. Thank you for your presence with us today.

Angel

Although my body you can't hold, it doesn't mean I'm gone. This world was worthy, not, of me, God chose that I move on. I know the pain that drowns your soul, what you are forced to face. You have my word, I'll fill your arms someday we will embrace. You'll hear that it was "meant to be, God doesn't make mistakes" But that won't soften your worst blow, or make your heart not ache. There will come a time I promise you, when you will hold my hand, stroke my face and kiss my lips and then you'll understand.

"Trust that life matters, however brief. Trust that God's promise unending life is real -- for you, for lives long gone and for the dear, new life that had only just began."

Michaelene and Linus Mundy

And Jesus called a little child unto him, and set him in the midst of them And said, Verily I say unto you, Except ye be converted, and become as little children, ye shall not enter into the kingdom of heaven.

Matthew 18:2-3
