James V. Jones, Jr., age 76 of Dayton, Ohio was born May 20, 1944 in Pensacola, Florida. He was the son of the late James V. Jones, Sr. and Almena (Jones) Bobbitt. He was a 1963 graduate of Dunbar High School and retired from Dayton Power and Light after 25 faithful years of service. He was baptized Catholic at an early age.

James was a devoted husband and loving father. He was laidback and humorous. He enjoyed spending time with his family, looking for deals and hidden treasures at garage sales and Trader's World, and listening to music.

On Saturday, February 27, 2021 James quietly entered into eternal rest. He was preceded in death by his father, mother, and step-father Jesse Bobbitt. He leaves to cherish his memories and celebrate his life: his wife, Diana Alexander Jones; three children, Jennifer Romero (Carlos), Ryan Alexander (Shauntay) and Brittany Jones (Thomas); four grandchildren, Peyton Woodruff, Melia Alexander, Ryan Kellis Alexander II, and Kaia Alexander; two brothers, Tony Jones (Ruth), John Jones; a host of nieces, nephews, other family members and friends.

Garden Of Promise

There is a place, I have been told, beyond an open gate. All have been invited where friends and loved ones wait. It holds eternal promise, of everlasting peace. No pain or sorrow ever comes and teardrops there have ceased. Abundant life is evident, Constant, fresh and new. A garden of provision, with eternity in view. The promise is awaiting, a place we can abide, Fulfilled for all who answer the call to come inside.

Psalm 23 - A Psalm of David

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He makes me to lie down in green pastures; He leads me beside the still waters. He restores my soul; He leads me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil for You are with me; Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me. You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies. You anoint my head with oil; my cup runs over. Surely, goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
