Obituary

It is with heavy hearts that we the Dawson and Crane Families announce the passing of our beloved Sheila E. Crane age 60 of Dayton, OH. Sheila went home to be with the Lord on April 8, 2021, at Miami Valley Hospital.

Sheila was a member of Omega Baptist Church and a graduate of Meadowdale High School in 1978.

Sheila touched many lives, from the children who rode her bus, other school bus drivers, coworkers, Subway shop employees, healthcare professionals, to even those who endured chemotherapy alongside her. The testimonies are endless letting, we her family know, that she touched so many with her pure heart and Godly faith. She was a friend to so many and a Spiritual Warrior for God.

To us she was a devoted Mom, loving Grandmother (GiGi) and a great sister as well as a loving auntie and cousin.

We know that our beloved Sheila has AWAKENED to see the faces of her Father in Heaven, her Savior Jesus Christ, her mom and her first born son.

She was preceded in death by her mother Mary Lee Crane, Grandfather Elijah B. Crane Sr., and her first born son Michael James Crane.

She is survived by 2 sons; William T. Dawson (Tyler) and William D. Dawson (Demetrius), 3 sisters; Sharon McAttee of El Paso, TX., Sheryl (Clifford) Caver of Westland, MI and Shellie Crane of Dayton, OH. 5 brothers Jerry (Marlene) Crane of Dayton, OH, Jeffrey (Shirley) Crane of Fairmont, WV. Alford Todd Crane (Pat), Darryl Crane of Dayton, OH., and Elder Darrin (Lisa) Crane of Gainesville, GA.

One granddaughter; Demmi Louise Dawson, her eldest niece Pamela Crane and a whole host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.
