

A Fallen Limb

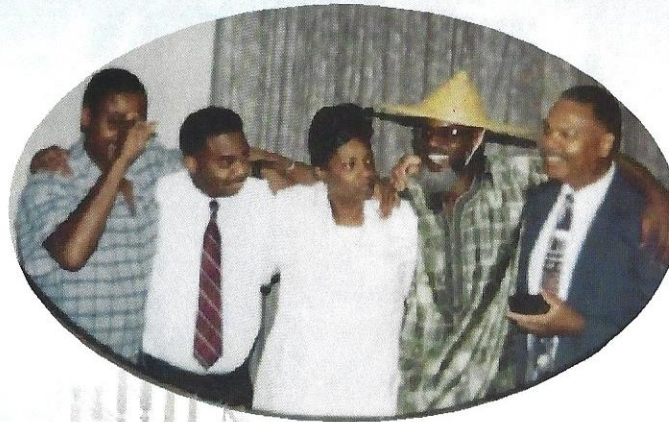

- Author Unknown

A limb has fallen from the family tree. I keep hearing a voice that says, "Grieve not for me. Remember the best times, the laughter, the song. The good life I lived while I was strong. Continue my heritage, I'm counting on you. Keep smiling and surely the sun will shine through. My mind is at ease, my soul is at rest. Remembering all, how I truly was blessed. Continue traditions, no matter how small. Go on with your life, don't worry about falls. I miss you all dearly, so keep up your chin. Until the day comes we're together again.

In loving memory of our father.

Sketch of Life

Lewis A. Price, aged 70, passed away at home, Saturday, April 17, 2021, following a short illness. He was born April 3, 1951 in Wheeling, West Virginia to Elizabeth Thomas and Lewis Price. Lewis was raised by his mother and his Aunt Helen. He graduated from Deveaux High School in Niagara Falls, New York in 1969. He attended and graduated from Washington University in St. Louis, Missouri, and received a Bachelor of Science degree in Applied Math & Computer Science in 1973. There, he met Joyce Weaver who would soon become his wife. LaNetta Adrienne and Alicia Nicole were the blessing of their union. His granddaughter, Joy, was the greatest joy of his life. He truly loved and adored her. He obtained a Master's Degree from the University of Dayton in Business Administration with a focus on Organizational Leadership in 1984. He worked in computer systems management for more than 44 years for several Fortune 500 companies and retired in 2017. Lewis was involved with many organizations that served youth, including Big Brothers, tutoring and coaching basketball and track. He loved all sports and was an avid tennis player. Lewis loved to travel with his family and had gone to numerous states and countries. He had hoped to spend his remaining years in Belize. Lewis loved his family, and was truly devoted to them. He was a caring husband and went above and beyond to support and care for his wife. He was the ultimate girl dad, and absolutely loved his girls. Lewis was a father figure to many. He was always willing to serve others and his community including volunteering with the Trinity's Saturday morning breakfast program and Community Action Partnership's Thanksgiving community giveaways. This included being a role model, giving advice, providing resources, but most importantly showing up and demonstrating love, always with a smile. Lewis never wanted any recognition for his acts of kindness. He did so, because it was the right thing to do. Lewis was a man of faith and demonstrated his faith through his actions.

Silent, Strong Dad

He never looks for praises. He's never one to boast. He just goes on quietly working for those he loves the most. His dreams are seldom spoken. His wants are very few, and most of the time his worries will go unspoken, too. He's there..... a firm foundation through all our storms of life, a sturdy hand to hold onto in times of stress and strife. A true friend we can turn to when times are good or bad. One of our greatest blessings, the man that we call Dad.
