 A LIMB HAS fallen from the family tree
that says
Grieve not for me
Remember the BEST TIMES,
the laughter, the song
the good life I lived while I was STRONG.

To My Loving, Husband,

Sometimes I just sit quietly reflecting for a while imagining your voice, your face, your warmth and loving smile. For it's so lovely to recall, the happy times we had, when you played such a special role as husband, dad and grandfather. And at this very special time, I only wish you knew that I'd give all the world today for one more hour with you. But still I have my memories and since we have been apart it comforts me to know that you are right here in my heart.

Your loving wife, Myrtle

Our Loving Father,

God took the strength of a mountain and the majesty of a tree. The warmth of a summer sun, the calm of a quiet sea. The generous soul of nature and the comforting arm of night. The wisdom of the ages and the power of the eagle's flight, the joy of a morning and spring and the faith of a mustard seed, the patience of eternity and the depth of a family need, then God combined these qualities, when there was nothing more to add, He knew His masterpiece was complete, and so, He called it...DAD!

From your loving sons, Rod and Craig

LOVING MEMORIES of a SPECIAL SON,

To lose someone so special is really hard to bear. It hardly seems believable that you're no longer there. You always lived life to the full but ours won't be the same until the day when we can see your smiling face again.

Your loving mother, Lillie (mom)

"It's said to be that angels are sent from above. I've always had my angel, —My Brother—whose heart was filled with love.

Your loving sister, Leola

Family

I will always love you. Remember, when God calls you home, I will be waiting for you.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free
I'm following the path God laid for me.
I took His hand when I heard Him call,
I turned my back and left it all.
I could not stay another day,
To laugh, to love, to work or play.
Tasks left undone must stay that way,
I found that place at the close of the day.
If my parting has left a void,
Then fill it with remembered joy.
A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss,
Ah yes, these things, I too, will miss.
Be not burdened with times of sorrow,
I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.
My life's been full, I savored much,
Good friends, good times, a loved one's touch.
Perhaps my time seemed all too brief,
Don't lengthen it now with undue grief.
Lift up your heart and share with me,
God wanted me now, He set me free.
