Danton Christopher Williams-Chambers, age 28 was born on August 13, 1992 to Dana L. Chambers as her one and only miracle son. He was educated in the Dayton Public School system and worked various jobs throughout the City. Danton accepted Christ as Lord and Savior at an early age. He loved his family and friends and all who knew him. He had a loving smile and beautiful eyes, was outgoing, outspoken and joyful. He was very intelligent, talented as a singer, skilled with his hands and technology. He was awesome and enjoyed singing, skating, traveling, playing video games and most of all spending time with family and friends.

On Monday, May 31, 2021 Danton transitioned from this life to be in the presence of the Lord. He leaves to cherish fond memories and celebrate his life his loving and devoted mother, Dana L. Chambers; a host of sisters, brothers, aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, god-parents, other family members and friends.

I'm Free - Author Unknown

Don't grieve for me for now I'm free. I'm following the path God laid for me. I took his hand when I heard him call. I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day, to laugh, to love, to work, or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way; I've found that peace at the close of day. If my parting has left a void, then fill it with remembered joy. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, Ah yes, these things I too will miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow: I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full I've savored much, good times, good friends, a loved one's touch. Perhaps my time seemed all to brief, don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your heart and share with me, God wanted me now, he set me free.

Psalm 23 - A Psalm of David (kjv)

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He makes me to lie down in green pastures; He leads me beside the still waters. He restores my soul; He leads me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil for You are with me; Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me. You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies. You anoint my head with oil; my cup runs over. Surely, goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life and I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.
