

Miss Me But Let Me Go

When I come to the end of the road, and the sun has set for me, I want no rites in gloom filled rooms, Why cry for a soul set free? Miss me a little – but not too long, and not with your head bowed low; remember the love that we once shared, miss me – but let me go. This is a journey that we all must take, and each must go alone. It's all part of the Master's plan, a step on the road to home. When you are lonely and sick at heart, go to the friends we know, and busy your sorrows in doing good deeds. Miss me – but let me go. ~ Betty Miller

Obituary

Dreama Lee Hunt, 74, departed this life on Wednesday, September 14, 2022, at Friendship Village.

Dreama was born on March 21, 1948, to the late Lue Emma and Harry Saunders. She was born in Glen Daniels, West Virginia. At an early age, Dreama confessed Jesus as her Lord and Savior. After graduating from Nettie Lee Roth High School in 1966, in Dayton, Ohio she went to work for Hewitt Soap Company where she retired after many years of dedicated service.

Dreama was preceded by her son Richard Edward Hunt, Sr.; brothers James and Mark Saunders; sisters Cecilia Marino and Frances Cohen.

Everyone who knew her felt her big heart and giving nature. Dreama never let anyone struggle if it was in her power to help them. Those that had nowhere to go, to stay, to sleep or to eat have reached out to say how grateful they were that she took them in when no one else would. Although she had two sons naturally, many people called her "mom" "momma" "mom's" or "ma."

She leaves to cherish her memory (1) son Christopher Hunt Sr.; (2) brothers Allen Saunders Sr. and Kenneth Saunders; (2) sisters Emma Culpepper and Janice Saunders; (7) grandchildren Christopher Hunt Jr., LaKeisha McLarty, Richard Hunt Jr., Christopher Hunt III, Jamilla Hunt, Christine Stapleton, Kristian Florence Hunt, and (3) great-grandchildren Naomi' Renee Hunt, Richano Re'Mir Fisher and Raelyn Garrett; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends special friends Corona L. Spells, Jean Jordan and Lilian Tyner.
