The family wishes to thank everyone for their acts of kindness, love, prayers and expressions of sympathy during our time of bereavement.

May God continue to bless each of you.

If I Should Go Tomorrow

If I should go tomorrow
It would never be goodbye,
For I have left my heart with you,
So don't you ever cry.

The love that's deep within me
Shall reach you from the stars,
You'll feel it from the heavens
And it will heal the scars.

Obituary

Douglas Fairbanks Jr, age 75, passed away peacefully at his home in Dayton, OH with his wife by his side.

Douglas was born November 29, 1946 in Cincinnati, OH to Douglas Fairbanks, Sr and Louise Estelle Fairbanks. After graduating from high school, Douglas enlisted in the Air Force where he served 4 years as a Sergeant and was honorably discharged.

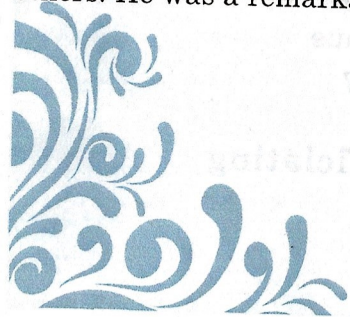

Douglas moved to Los Angeles to start his life and attended UCLA in 1971 where he received his bachelor's degree in Psychology. While attending school he worked at Los Angeles County Hospital as a Supervisor in the medical records department. He continued his education and received a degree in Clinical Psychology from UC Irvine.

Doug started working for the Orange County Library as a Manager. In his spare time, he tutored high school students in math and science.

Doug decided to move back to Ohio where he met his wife Judy Ann whom he was married to for 26 years. While in Ohio, Douglas worked as an Ombudsman. He was also an ordained deacon at Greater Love Christian Church.

Douglas leaves to cherish his memory, his wife, Judy Ann Fairbanks, daughter Kimberly M Fairbanks, stepdaughters Kimberly Fletcher and Jennifer Robinson, grandson, Myles McDonald, step grandsons, Daquan Henderson, Ronald and Victor Fletcher, step granddaughters, Trinity Fletcher and Taylor Robinson, great grandchildren, his sister, Linda Fairbanks and a host of relatives and friends.

Douglas lived a life of service. He served the Lord, our country, and others. He was a remarkable man and will be deeply missed.

Our Father which art in Heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, in earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day, our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power and the glory, forever. Amen.

Matthew 6:9-13
