Obituary

Courtney Aaron Shane Williams

Courtney Aaron Shane Williams age 30, passed away unexpectedly, early Sunday morning, October 2, 2022. Born to Ann M. Williams and John F. Black, December 12, 1991.

He is preceded in death by his maternal grandparents Rachel and Samuel Williams,

He leaves to cherish his memory His mother Ann M. Williams, father John F. Black, his devoted Brother, Ryan London Williams, sister in-law, Courtney Williams & nephew Cavell Williams.

Aaron is also survived by his Paternal Grand Parents Phyllis Hamilton, and James Heflin, an uncle Gary Williams, a devoted cousin Pamela Yates; Jerry and Laverne Hawes, as well as his dear friend, mentor , Jasmine Brown, Owner of, “Delish Café;” Where Aaron worked for about a decade.

He is also survived by a host of Aunt’s, Uncle’s, cousins and friends.

After Aaron graduated from Jefferson High School, he began his studies in college to become a Chef, and earned his Chef license. Then he began having special events throughout the community, showing off his gifts; with his financial advisor, and brothers help, the events were ; And success of course every food item he’d prepared was indeed delicious, and the decor was extravagant .

Obituary Cont'd

Aaron would always cook for his family and friends, at their residents, we loved his meals! But after dinner, don't expect any leftovers, because Aaron loved his own cooking, too 🍳

We are truly going to miss our baby boy, and thank God and his mother for sharing him with us.

Poem

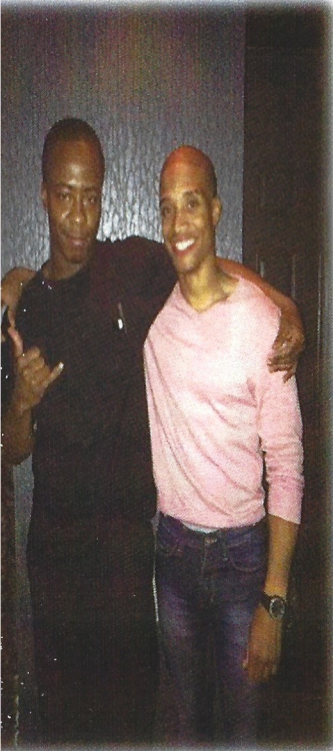

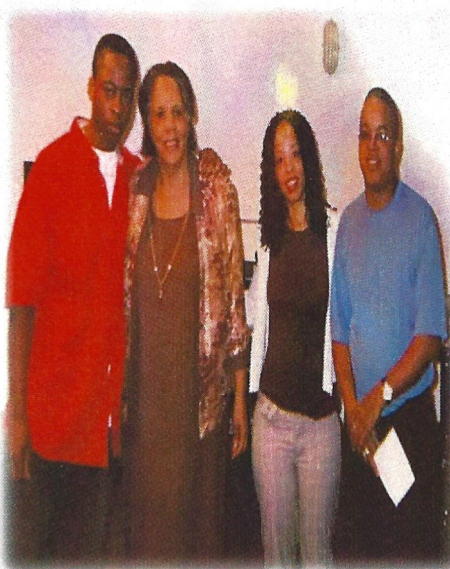

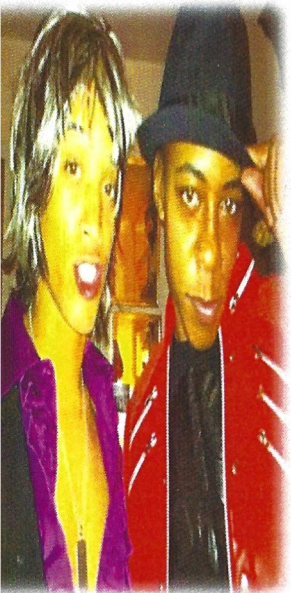

“A Finished Journey”

God saw you were getting tired
And a strong heart was not to be
So, he put his arms around you
And whispered “Come to Me”
A golden heart stopped beating
A faithful loving soul at rest
God knew our hearts were hurting and spoke
I am bringing home one of my best.
